

1.

Job Titles

Job titles in English are often formed from verbs.

He paints.

He drives a taxi.

I teach in a pre-school.

He is a painter.

He is a taxi driver.

I am a pre-school teacher.

Directions: Look at the job descriptions below and write the job title.

Example: He designs clothes. He is a designer.

| She is a... | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| He owns a business. | He is a business owner. |
| He gardens. | |
| She manages a restaurant. | |
| He interprets for patients. | |
| She photographs people. | |
| He operates the phones. | |
| She supervises the office. | |
| He prints newspapers. | |
| She sings. | |
| She inspects buildings for safety. | |